A Freak in Nature.
Mr. Alex. Durst, the Main street fruiter, has on exhibition a singular freak in the nature in shape of a double watermelon, grown from one stem. Mr. Durst has named the curiosity "The Two Johns."

Birthday Party.
On Saturday evening Louis Metzger, of North Main street, celebrated the fiftieth anniversary of his birth. An elegant supper was served and a host of his friends called in and not only partook of his hospitality and congratulated him, but made many handsome presents as testimonials of their regard and esteem.

First Presbyterian Church.
At half past two o'clock to-day, there will be a popular meeting of ladies in the lecture room to hear an address made by Mrs. Alexander, of the East Persia mission; her little daughter will accompany her, and will appear in the costumes of the Persian children. The ladies of Wheeling and surrounding towns will be cordially welcomed.

A Narrow Escape.
William Mann, a cigarmaker in the employ of J. F. Miller, on the South Side, met with a very unfortunate accident yesterday. While whittling a piece of wood, the knife slipped and cut a horrible gash in his left hand, severing an artery, which caused considerable loss of blood before a physician could be secured to stop it. Mr. Mann still very weak and faint from loss of blood at a late hour last evening.

Squire Arkle's Court.
Susan Colman was tried before Squire Arkle last evening on complaint of John Kiger, being charged with disturbing the peace. On hearing the evidence she was fined $1 and costs and required to give $100 bond for one year for good behavior.
S. K. Honsoff was fined $5 and costs for assault and battery. Susan Trux was fined $1 and costs on a counter complaint for disturbance of the peace.

Lutheran Mission Feast.
Next Sabbath at the annual mission feast the German Lutheran St. Matthew's church, at Benwood, W. Va., the following clergymen will officiate at the services: Liturgy, by Rev. Dr. C. F. W. Brecht, of Perryville, Pa. In the afternoon, at 2:30 p. m., and the evening altar service, by the rector and sermon, by Rev. A. W. Werder, of Wheeling; and in the evening, at 7:20 p. m., by A. Doecken, of Martin's Ferry.

Approaching Weddings.
The St. Matthews P. E. church will be the scene of no less than three weddings within twenty-four hours. The marriage of Chas. O. Roemer to Miss Sara Patterson Sweeney will take place to-morrow evening, which will be followed by the marriage of Mr. C. P. Brown, jr., to Miss Virginia Griffith at high noon on Thursday. No cards have been sent out. At three o'clock in the afternoon will occur the wedding ceremony of Mr. Henry Clay Sinsell to Miss Mary Wilboughly Kennedy. All the weddings will be of great social interest as the participants are all prominent social factors in this city.

WHAT CAUSED THE TALK.

The Exhumation of a Body of Unusual Weight—May be Petrified.

Mr. A. H. Marsh, a carriage maker a father of an excellent family now living in Bellaire, quietly concluded to have his wife's remains brought from Morristown, Ohio, to Rose Hill cemetery, so that more attention could be given the last resting place of his wife and mother. It was not the intention that the public should know anything of it, nor would it perhaps, but for the fact that when the body was exhumed the undertaker at Morristown had to have six men assist him in handling it on account of the great weight, and when the coffin was removed the body was almost perfectly preserved. This, of course, occasioned a great deal of talk about it being petrified, and it may have been, indeed it is probable, but the talk is quite annoying to the family, whose sole object was to have better opportunity to care for their mother's grave.

The True Laxative Principle of the plants used in manufacturing the pleasant remedy, Syrup of Figs, has a permanently beneficial effect on the human system, while the cheap vegetable extracts and mineral solutions, usually sold as medicines, are permanently injurious. Being well-informed, you will use the true remedy only. Manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Company.

REPUBLICAN RALLIES

In This City and Elsewhere During the Week.

COLORED VOTERS' MEETING

At the Second Ward Market Hall This Evening to Be Addressed by a Distinguished Orator of Their Own Race—Union District Meeting. Other Matters of Stirring Interest to Republicans.

This evening at the Second ward market hall at 8 o'clock there will be a meeting of the Ohio County Republican club, to which every colored voter in the county is cordially invited. Mr. B. F. Stewart, a member of their race, and a distinguished citizen of Harrisburg, Pa., will make a speech, which all should hear.

A meeting of the Union district Republican club will be held at the Central club's headquarters, in the Lutz building, on Market street, to-morrow evening, for the purpose of organizing a marching club. It is hoped there will be a large turn out and that a fine marching club may be ready for the first Republican demonstration.

Capt. B. B. Dovener will address a Republican meeting at Pleasant Valley, Marshall county, on Thursday of this week. Mr. Charles Burdett Hart and ex-State Senator Alex. Campbell will also be present and enliven the audience.

Secretary of War Elkins was to have spoken in Charleston last night and tonight in Huntington, but owing to a sudden and severe bilious attack his physician would not permit him to fill those appointments. The secretary, however, telegraphs that he will speak at Philippi or Davis about the middle or later in the week.

COLORED VOTERS

To Be Addressed To-Night at Market Hall by Mr. Stewart.

Mr. Stewart, a prominent colored Republican speaker of Harrisburg, Pa., will address the colored citizens at Market hall this evening at 8 o'clock. Mr. Stewart was present at the Democratic meeting at the city hall square last Thursday night and heard the speech of Colonel MacCorkle, the Democratic candidate for governor, in which he reflected on the colored voters, and he will pay particular attention to that portion of his remarks. All colored voters are invited to attend the meeting and hear the political questions of the day discussed from a colored man's standpoint. Let all turn out.

Washington District Republicans.

The Republicans of Washington district having secured elegant quarters for meeting purposes at No. 517 Main street arrangements are being made to hold a meeting in a few days to organize a club. When the time is fixed good speakers will be on hand to address the people. The Republicans of this district should make it a point to be present. Sacrifice a little time for the good of the party and encourage by your presence those who are working with their shoulders at the wheel.

The Young Men's Republican Escort club will hold an important meeting at 8 o'clock this evening, at Republican Central headquarters, Market street, which all members of the organization are urged to attend. The badges have arrived and will be on exhibition.

"SHIELD'S OLD DIVISION."

They Will Hold a Reunion During Encampment Week at Washington.

The Shields Division Association will hold a grand reunion during Grand Army week at Washington and invite all who were members of "Shield's Old Division" to participate. This division was composed of the only troops accredited with having defeated "Stonewall" Jackson. It is expected that Gen. Nathan Kimball, Gen. S. S. Carroll (Brick Top), and others will be present. Look for the tent marked "Shield's Old Division," where visitors will register their names and secure all the information they desire.

The reunion of this division will be of peculiar interest to West Virginia soldiers, the following commands having participated in the Valley campaign in 1862: Seventh West Virginia, Eleventh West Virginia, Batteries A and B of the First West Virginia, and five companies of the First West Virginia cavalry.

Modern Advertising.

The Wheeling daily and Sunday papers are marvelous specimens of the art of advertising. In olden time merchants and retailers were content to display their signs, and occasionally send out to their customers a stereotyped form of circular announcing their wares, but in these days of high competition and hard work, it is the man who shows the greatest skill and judgment in the manner and method of calling the public attention to his specialties that meets with the greatest success.

The most recent form of advertising—and it is claimed by the founders to be the most successful—is the coupon system of free insurance, by which Messrs. House & Herrmann, for instance, the well-known furniture merchants announce to the public generally their specialties for any given day, week or month.

On the one side of the coupon, which may be a leaflet, or a card, the merchant may describe his business in his own way, and on the reverse, is a life insurance for one day, a week, a month or a year for $500 or $1,000, or even $5,000.

These insurance souvenirs go into the homes of the people, who may call and get one free of charge, and are constantly talked about, and the enterprise of the firm highly recommended. Whole families may be insured in this way throughout the year, without paying a fraction for it. The merchant pays for it as an advertising medium.

Edward L. Rose & Co., will, during the coming week, offer special bargains in their Fair Exhibition Bicycles. These wheels will be returned to the factories if not sold within a short time. Don't delay.

Hellmeier's Dyeing Establishment. John Hellmeier, proprietor of the Pan Handle Dyeing Establishment, No. 1431 Market street, respectfully announces that he is prepared to do cleaning, dyeing and repairing, and in fact he guarantees to make your last year's clothes look as good as new on short notice. Give him a call.

Bugies kills roaches, bed bugs, etc., the instant they come near it. 25 cents.

SEE that you are assessed.

Closing Out Odds and ends of Oxford Ties regardless of cost. L. V. BLOND.
